

MISSION STATEMENT

My primary mission as a daughter of God is care for my husband, Mel, and my daughter, Cecilia. They are my life and my joy! Second to that is my mission as a lay Catholic evangelist—a calling that has often surprised and delighted me. I give thanks to God for using me in this way, and I look forward to the continuing unfolding of this great adventure with Him.

If I had to boil down the essence of what I feel called to do, it is to encourage people—whether through music, storytelling, or teaching from the great Catholic spiritual writers and my own life experience. Tears and laughter from the audience (and from me) are not uncommon, and I consider them to be a true gift of the Holy Spirit. These audiences have ranged from Catholic women’s prayer breakfasts to leadership groups to large family conferences.

My heart burns with a desire to share the riches of our Catholic faith, especially to lapsed or lukewarm Catholics. I submit myself to the teaching authority of the Magisterium of the Roman Catholic Church in matters of faith and morals, and I delight in her guidance.

Favorite topics include:

- His Grace Is Enough (similar to my Lighthouse CD, God Will Provide)
- Beloved: Finding My Identity in Christ (for women)
- Deus Providebit: Trusting in God's Divine Providence
- Imitating Mary: Living in the Heart of the Trinity
- The Habit of Prayer: Making time for God
- Mother at My Door: Discovering who the Virgin Mary is for us personally
- Peace I Leave with You: Receiving the gift that only Christ can give
- Divine Mercy: A Miracle Story
- Life in the Holy Spirit: Fire Within!

I also enjoy being given particular topics to research and prepare, as well as being commissioned to write songs from particular quotes or themes.

By virtue of our baptism, we have been called to become evangelists in a world where despair, godlessness, and violence cry out for a remedy. My job is to rally the troops and encourage them to join me in this mission to bring the Good News to the ends of the earth, starting in our own hearts, homes, and parishes.

In Christ, our Hope,

BIOGRAPHY

Kitty Cleveland, a singer/songwriter and inspirational speaker from New Orleans, began her professional career as a lawyer and then as a college professor. But in an adoration chapel one day in 1998, as she searched for God during a devastating family crisis, she clearly heard the Lord Jesus call her to become a "music missionary."

Kitty heeded the call and has since released 10 CDs of music and prayer. Her latest project, a new nonprofit called Sounds of Peace, was inspired by her desire to share the consolation of her music and prayer with the poor, the sick, and the dying. See Kitty's website for the amazing story behind it and the testimonies of those who have benefitted from the ministry.

Kitty has appeared numerous times on television, on the radio, in concert, and as a keynote speaker both at home and abroad. She lives in the New Orleans area with her musician husband and teen daughter, whom they adopted from China in 2005. In addition to praying with people for healing and encouragement, she enjoys cooking, gardening, oil painting, and is currently working on her first book about her father's unjust imprisonment and dramatic release by the U.S. Supreme Court.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

"Kitty's love for the Lord and for her Catholic faith was palpable, and she left us all uplifted and encouraged with her message and music. I wholeheartedly recommend Kitty Cleveland for your future event." Most Rev. Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.I., Archbishop of Denver

"I had the joy and privilege to attend an event recently where Kitty Cleveland was the featured presenter. She has been blessed with an amazing singing voice and compliments her storytelling with beautifully sung prayer... I would not hesitate to recommend her services to others." Most. Rev. David Ricken, Bishop of Green Bay

"Kitty shared her inspiring story and beautiful singing with endearing personality and delightful humor. Many of the 500 women said afterward that she was their favorite Magnificat speaker of all time--out of 40 speakers! I heartily recommend her for any group." Kay Burkot, Magnificat of Pittsburgh, PA

"I have the privilege of counting Kitty Cleveland as one of my close friends, and for that, I am most grateful. When I listen to her CDs I'm touched by her wellspring of talent, but even more, I'm moved to know that her music is the result of God interacting with her in the valleys and the mountaintops of her life. She is real, she is deeply spiritual, and she has one of the most beautiful voices I have ever heard." Jeff Cavins, Bible scholar and Catholic evangelist

"We are all still floating since your appearance at our Endow Gala! This week I have had more positive calls and emails than I can possibly handle. The humor, warmth, and love that came through in your talk had all 500 people in the room riveted." Terry Polakovic, Endow Co-Founder and Executive Director
